An Invitation

TIME

THE WEEKLY NEWSMAGAZINE

Dear Reader:

You and some of your neighbors are being invited to try TIME at a special rate: 20 weeks for only $2.97.

Since TIME for 20 weeks is regularly $5.77 by subscription and $10.00 at the newsstand, that's quite an invitation. And for such a small investment, TIME offers so much - all the news each week conveniently organized in 25 separate departments.

Won't you use the pencil to initial your order and mail it to us today? We'll bill you later.

TIME will give you all the news worth knowing (At the introductory price of less than 15¢ an issue)

If you're like most educated people, you probably feel that you should be better informed—but you just don't have enough time for extensive reading.

Many people in that position simply give up and let the world pass them by.

But many others have found a solution in TIME.

TIME selects and summarizes the most important events in each week's news. With more reporters than any other magazine or T.V. network, it reports on a wide variety of fields, from business to fashion.

In just an hour or two a week, TIME let's you know what the world's been up to.

And TIME's colorful, fast-moving style makes keeping informed a pleasure instead of a chore.

Twenty-four million people around the world read TIME every week. Perhaps you should too.

TIME examines modern living, sports, religion and celebrated people.

TIME provides incisive, entertaining reviews of new motion pictures, plays, and books. Special sections also reveal behind-the-scenes news of television and the press.

TIME reports the important the nation and the world with on-the-spot coverage by a and expert staff.
